Receipts and revenue, not jargon

Why FluxMuse exists, what it stands for, and the one sentence everyone on the team should be able to say from memory.

MISSION	Give every African business a marketing team and a checkout, inside the chat app its customers already use.
VISION	A braider in Tembisa, a baker in Lagos and an agency in Nairobi market, sell and get paid as easily as any global brand, in their own language and their own currency.
BRAND PROMISE	Less admin, more sales you can see. FluxMuse does the planning, posting and chasing, and shows you the orders and rands it brought in.

Mission, vision and promise are v1.0 drafts written from the facts file. They need founder sign-off before external use.

POSITIONING STATEMENT

FOR solo entrepreneurs, SMEs and agencies in South Africa and across Africa
WHO sell on social media and WhatsApp but don't have the time, budget or tools for a marketing team, FLUXMUSE IS the AI marketing team and WhatsApp commerce platform THAT writes their posts, answers their customers and sends them every order on WhatsApp. UNLIKE tools built for card-first markets and priced in dollars, FluxMuse is African-first: WhatsApp-native, multilingual and priced in rands.

Why FluxMuse exists

Across Africa, business happens in the chat. A customer sees a post, sends a WhatsApp message, asks about stock, and then the sale stalls: a missed reply after hours, no easy way to order, an owner who has no time left to post again tomorrow.

Most marketing software was built somewhere else, for businesses that pay in dollars, sell through websites and hire marketers. FluxMuse starts from how African businesses actually trade.

WhatsApp-native. Send product photos and get a catalogue and a shop link; every order arrives on WhatsApp. Checkout through FluxMuse (Paystack, South Africa) is being switched on. Multilingual. The assistant answers customers in their own language. Priced in rands. Paid plans start at R149 a month in South Africa.

We don't sell AI for its own sake. We sell a Saturday that isn't spent answering DMs, and a month-end report that shows real orders.

The problem we solve, in one board.

infographics/problem-solution.png

What we believe

The chat is the shop

If your customers are on WhatsApp, the sale should finish there too, not on a page they abandon.

Local money is not an edge case

Mobile money, EFT and USSD are how Africa pays. We build for them first.

Every language is a market

People buy in the language they think in. Multilingual is the default, not an add-on.

Proof over promises

We show orders, bookings and rands. No invented numbers, no borrowed testimonials.

Three launch segments, South Africa first

Every campaign, deck and proposal speaks to one of these three. Enterprise is not a launch target in FY1: take inbound deals, but don't build materials for them.

Sequence

South Africa first: a small first group of businesses, set up by hand, then national. Nigeria, Kenya and Ghana are priced but not on sale until payment-provider accounts are live; then other markets, self-serve. Botswana and Namibia are "coming soon". For agencies, never quote a fixed margin percentage (such as the "40–60%" on the /for-agencies page): margin depends on the partner's own prices and costs. Use the labelled illustrative spread in section 16.

Warm, direct, African-first, zero jargon

We sound like the sharp friend who runs a business and happens to understand AI: helpful, local, straight to the point.

TRAIT

WE ARE NOT

Warm

We greet people, use their name and sound like a neighbour, not a call centre.

✓ WE ARE

Friendly, encouraging, patient with first-timers

✗ WE ARE NOT

Gushing, overfamiliar or full of exclamation marks

Direct

Say the thing first. Prices, steps and next actions are never hidden.

✓ WE ARE

Clear, specific, short sentences, real numbers from the price list

✗ WE ARE NOT

Blunt, cold, or vague about what things cost

Grounded

Receipts and revenue, not jargon. We talk about orders, bookings and time saved.

✓ WE ARE

Practical, honest about what's live and what's coming

✗ WE ARE NOT

Hype-driven, techy, or promising results we can't show

Proudly African

Built here, for here. Local references come naturally, never as decoration.

✓ WE ARE

Local, multilingual, confident, specific about places and money

✗ WE ARE NOT

Stereotyped, "safari" clichés, or talking about Africa as one country

Quietly clever

The AI does the heavy lifting; the owner gets the credit.

✓ WE ARE

Smart, calm, in service of the business

✗ WE ARE NOT

Sci-fi, "autonomous overlords", or making people feel behind

Tone by context

CONTEXT	DIAL UP	DIAL DOWN	EXAMPLE
Social posts	Warmth, local flavour, one clear idea per post	Feature lists, more than 5 hashtags	"Your DMs are full of customers. Let's turn them into orders. From R149 a month."

CONTEXT	DIAL UP	DIAL DOWN	EXAMPLE
WhatsApp chats	Brevity, the customer's language, a clear next step	Long paragraphs, links without context, pressure	"Dumela Thabo. Thanks for your order: 2 items, R278. We'll confirm on WhatsApp shortly."
Sales	The customer's numbers, the price, a demo on their products	Competitor bashing, unverified results	"On Growth (R1,999/mo) you get 3 brands and 15 channels. Want to see it on your own products?"
Support	Empathy, exact steps, ownership	Blame, jargon, "as per our policy"	"Sorry, that didn't work. Nothing was charged. I'll check it now and come back to you within the hour."
Investors	Precision, sources, clear labels for assumptions	Adjectives, unsourced market figures	"Paystack live in South Africa; pawaPay and Fincra contracted, accounts pending. No customers yet: opening with a small first group."

Writing rules

- Plain language. If a braider in Soweto wouldn't say it, rewrite it.
- Money as people say it. "R149 a month", not "ZAR 149". Keep "ZAR/NGN/KES/GHS" for finance tables; other currencies are not on sale yet.
- Sentence case for headlines, buttons and menus. The product tagline is the one title-case exception.
- South African English spelling: colour, optimise, programme, catalogue in prose (the product feature is "catalog").
- Local greetings are welcome where the audience uses them (Sawubona, Dumela, Howzit, How far, Habari). See the language notes below.
- Inclusive. "Business owner", "team", "they". Informal and township businesses are businesses. No "emerging-market" condescension.
- No jargon: omnichannel, synergy, leverage, funnel optimisation, LLM, RAG. Say what it does.
- No hype: revolutionary, game-changing, 10x, supercharge, unleash, disrupt, "guaranteed results".
- Numbers only from the facts file. No customer counts, ratings, testimonials or results. FluxMuse has none yet.
- Name the agents (Strategist, Creator, Publisher, Analyst) when it helps. Never call them "employees" or "replacing staff".

Reply in their language

In WhatsApp, answer in the language the customer wrote in. Mixing English with a local language is natural; follow the customer's lead.

Write, don't translate

Draft campaigns natively for each language rather than translating English word for word. Idioms and humour rarely travel.

Never as a costume

Don't sprinkle greetings into copy for a market that doesn't speak that language. Not sure? Use English.

One line on the roof, four pillars underneath

10 SECONDS

FluxMuse is your marketing team on WhatsApp for R149 a month: send photos, get a shop link.

30 SECONDS

You're doing everything: posting, replying, chasing orders. FluxMuse turns your product photos into a shop link, writes your Status posts when you say POST, and answers customers in their language. Every order lands on your WhatsApp. It's R149 a month, and Founding Members pay 30% less for the first two bills.

60 SECONDS

Most of your sales start in WhatsApp DMs, and too many end there, with a missed reply after hours. FluxMuse helps at both ends. Send product photos and it drafts your catalogue; you reply YES and get a shop link to share. Say POST and a caption and picture come back, ready for your Status. The assistant answers customers in their language, day and night, and you get a WhatsApp alert for every order. We'll show you a demo on your own products first, and set you up by hand.

SMEs

Growth · R1,999/mo

10 SECONDS

FluxMuse gives your business an AI marketing team that lives in WhatsApp.

30 SECONDS

Your team juggles separate tools and still answers WhatsApp by hand. FluxMuse answers customers in their language, turns product photos into a shop link, makes your posts and short clips, and sends every order to WhatsApp. Growth is R1,999 a month for three brands and 15 channels.

60 SECONDS

You're paying for too many tools and still handling WhatsApp orders by hand. FluxMuse is newly launched, and we're opening with a small first group of businesses. We set you up by hand: your WhatsApp Business number, a catalogue built from your photos, a shop link, and order alerts. The assistant answers in the customer's language; POST gives you captions and images; short video clips are a message away. Facebook and Instagram auto-posting and checkout through FluxMuse are being switched on. We back it with a lead guarantee: 3 qualified leads in 30 days, or we keep supporting you at no extra charge, as long as you share your link and post weekly.

Agencies

Partner wholesale · R6,999/mo

10 SECONDS

FluxMuse lets your agency serve more clients with the same team, under your own brand.

30 SECONDS

Clients want WhatsApp selling and AI; your margins can't take another tool per client. FluxMuse Agency is white-label and multi-client, with unlimited brands and 80 channels. Partners pay a wholesale R6,999 a month, set the client price and keep the difference.

60 SECONDS

Posting and replying eat the hours you should spend on strategy, and every new client means new logins and new costs. On the FluxMuse Agency tier, your team runs every client from one place, under your brand. Clients send product photos and get a shop link; the AI writes captions and images, answers their customers in their language and sends every order to WhatsApp. Partners pay R6,999 a month wholesale (30% off the R9,999 list). Start with a demo, and we'll work through an illustrative spread together.

Vector masters are still to be commissioned ([[COMMISSION VECTOR LOGO]]). The logos are small rasters (light 640 px, dark 497 px), so don't use them for print yet. The source `fluxmuse-logo-light.png` has the left stroke of the "F" clipped, and the light lockup inherits it. Until the fix lands, use the dark logo or dark lockup on a Night panel for anything external. Light files are for internal drafts only.

What the Muse means

The icon is a head built from low-poly facets in the full Muse spectrum, resting on a fine node network.

The facets are the many voices a business speaks with: languages, channels, ideas. The network is the AI team underneath, connecting every conversation to a result. The head keeps a person at the centre: the owner's creativity, amplified rather than replaced.

This is how we describe the mark in brand materials. It is an interpretation, not a design brief for new illustrations.

BRAND KIT - LOGO

Clear space & minimum size

Keep a margin of x on every side, where x is the cap height of the FLUXMUSE wordmark.

Shaded area = protected clear space. No text, edges, other logos or busy imagery may enter it. The same rule applies to fluxmuse-logo-dark.png on dark grounds.

Minimum size

Below these sizes the wordmark and the icon's node lines stop reading.

Usage

- Poppins for headlines, big numbers and short labels. Never for paragraphs.
- Inter for body, UI, tables and captions.
- Two weights per layout is usually enough.

Settings

- Sentence case headlines, text-wrap: balance.
- Tabular figures for prices and tables.
- Eyebrows only in caps, with letter-spacing.

Fallbacks

- Poppins → Avenir Next → Segoe UI → Arial.
- Inter → system UI → Arial.
- Email and Office documents: Arial.

In the product: system fonts

The FluxMuse app uses the device's system UI font for speed and native feel. Screenshots will look like this, not like Inter. That's expected; don't retouch them.

Order FLX-ZA confirmed. We'll WhatsApp you tracking updates.

Real businesses, phones in hand

We have no brand photography yet. Until we can photograph real businesses with their consent, use product composites and infographics, and brief photographers with the direction below.

Photography direction

- Real African SMB owners and teams, photographed where they work: salons and braiding studios, markets and spaza shops, home kitchens and bakeries, workshops, design studios, clinics.
- Phones and WhatsApp in hand. Show the moment of work: replying to a customer, packing an order, showing a before-and-after, tapping to pay.
- Natural light, warm but true skin tones, real clutter kept in. Shallow depth of field so screens and faces read.
- Candid over posed. People looking at their work or their customer, not at the camera with a thumbs up.
- Specific places: Gauteng first (Soweto, Tembisa, Mamelodi, Sandton), then Lagos, Nairobi, Accra. Caption the city.
- Consent always. Signed model releases; blur customer names and numbers on any screen in frame (POPIA).

MOTIF

The node network

Borrowed from the Muse icon. Thin lines, small nodes, one orange path at most.

Avoid

× Stock clichés

Handshakes in glass offices, headset call-centre smiles, people pointing at floating holograms, glowing robot brains.

× "Africa" shorthand

Savannah sunsets, safari animals, generic "tribal" patterns, poverty imagery. We show modern commerce.

× Fake or AI-generated people

No generated faces presented as customers, and no staged "customer" photos with invented names or results.

Node network rules

- 1–1.5 px lines at 8–14% opacity (white on Night, Slate on light).
- Corners and edges only; keep it out from behind text and faces.
- At most one Flux Orange path, to hint at "the connection that made the sale".
- Never animate it into a spinning globe or a brain.

Iconography

Lucide-style outline icons on a 24 px grid: 2 px stroke, round caps and joins, no fills. Colour with Ink, Slate or Deep Orange; on Night use white or Glow.

Illustration don'ts

- No 3D blobs, isometric cities or robot mascots.
- No mixing filled and outline icon sets in one layout.
- No payment-provider or platform logos as icons (write the name instead).
- No rainbow gradients built from the Muse spectrum.
- Don't redraw or animate the Muse head as a character.

Label it, source it, keep it honest

Charts and infographics carry our facts to investors and partners, so they follow stricter rules than anything else in the kit.

Chart style rules

- Series order: Flux Orange for the series that matters, then Slate, then spectrum accents in the order below. Five series maximum.
- Direct labels at the end of lines or on bars. Avoid legends when you can.
- Money in R m for the model and investor materials: "R12.4m", one decimal. Local currency in market slides; label FX assumptions.
- Zero baseline for bars. Hairline gridlines in Mist or Night-2. No 3D, no shadows, no pie charts above 4 slices.
- Label every assumption "est." or "indicative", with a source line under the chart.
- Not live? Dash it. Features being switched on (e.g. Facebook and Instagram auto-posting) use a dashed outline with a "being switched on" tag.
- Figures from the financial model only. Never draw a chart from a number that isn't in the model or the facts file.

AGENCY PARTNER MODEL

Resell FluxMuse under your own brand

Set your own retail price and keep the spread.

FluxMuse invoices your agency the partner wholesale price, R6,999/mo (30% off the R9,999 Agency tier), for multi-client, white-label FluxMuse. You bill your clients at a retail price you set.

✓ Say

Founding Member pricing: 30% off your first two monthly bills, for South African sign-ups, while it lasts.

A real rand price and an honest "while it lasts".

✗ Not

~~Try it free for a month, then lock in a lifetime Founding Member discount.~~

No free periods, no lifetime claims, no invented deadlines.

Lead guarantee

3 qualified leads in 30 days of go-live. If fewer arrive and the business shared its link and posted at least weekly, we keep supporting it at no extra charge until 3 are reached. It is not a refund, and there is no money-back guarantee. Always state it with its conditions.

No customers yet. We say so.

FluxMuse has no paying customers, no pilot and no results. We are opening with a small first group of South African businesses, and the founder sets each one up by hand. Case studies come later, only with written consent.

1Now

A small first group of businesses, set up by hand. Each live feature labelled "newly launched".

2As they go live

We record what is measured, with consent, in `07_Case_Studies/First_Group_Case_Studies.md`.

3Later

Case studies, only from real businesses who sign off on each use. No dates promised.

Your brand in front. FluxMuse behind.

Agencies on the Agency tier can white-label FluxMuse for their clients. These rules decide when our brand shows and how.

White-label

Client-facing product

Use your own logo, colours and domain. Don't show the FluxMuse logo inside a white-labelled workspace, and don't imply clients have a contract with FluxMuse.

Powered by FluxMuse

Optional credit line

Where you want to credit the platform (footers, proposals, reports), write "Powered by FluxMuse" as text in your body font. Link to fluxmuse.ai if you like.

Co-branded

Joint marketing

For co-marketing, webinars and the partner directory, use the co-branding lockup below. Needs written approval from FluxMuse for each campaign.

- Partner logo left, FluxMuse right, separated by a 1 px divider in Slate or Night-2.
- Equal optical height; FluxMuse is never larger than the partner's logo.
- Clear space of x around the whole lockup and between each logo and the divider.
- Use the dark logo on Night until the light "F" is fixed.
- Never merge the logos, recolour ours to your palette, or add "certified", "official" or "endorsed" without a written agreement.

✓ Partners may

Set their own client prices · use FluxMuse name and screenshots from the approved list · describe features exactly as in this kit · list in the partner directory.

✗ Partners may not

Advertise the Founding Member offer as their own discount · quote results or name clients as FluxMuse proof (FluxMuse has no results yet) · claim Meta permissions or payment rails in their own name · register domains or handles containing "fluxmuse".

Pricing

Partners buy the Agency tier at the wholesale price of R6,999/mo (30% off the R9,999 list) and set their own retail prices. When showing partner economics, use the illustrative example only and label it: 20 clients × R1,500 = R30,000/mo, minus R6,999 = R23,001/mo gross spread before the partner's own costs. Never quote a fixed margin percentage. Referral commission, directory criteria and co-marketing terms: [[PARTNER AGREEMENT TERMS]] .

Lines to copy, claims to avoid

Standard wording for footers, decks and consent screens. Have legal counsel review before first external use.

Trademark line

FluxMuse and the Muse icon are trademarks of Fluxmuse (Pty) Ltd. WhatsApp, Facebook, Instagram and Messenger are trademarks of Meta Platforms, Inc. Other product and company names are the property of their respective owners.

Use ™/® only once registration status is confirmed: [[TM STATUS]]

Meta permissions claim rule

Approved, OK to describe as live: Pages list, Page metadata, Page messaging (Messenger), WhatsApp Business messaging and management, public profile.

Not approved yet, never claim as live: Page posting and engagement insights, Instagram publishing, comments and DMs, business management. Facebook and Instagram auto-publishing are "being switched on". TikTok video posting is approved.

Say "verified Meta Tech Provider". Don't say "Meta partner", "Meta certified" or "official WhatsApp partner".

WhatsApp opt-in consent (POPIA)

[] Yes, [[BUSINESS NAME]] may send me order updates and offers on WhatsApp at the number above. I can reply STOP at any time to opt out. Read how we use your information: [[PRIVACY NOTICE LINK]]

Unticked by default. Record the date, source and wording of each opt-in. Separate consent for marketing vs order updates where required.

Payment provider names

- Write provider names as plain text: Yoco, Ozow, Paystack, pawaPay, Fincra, spelled with their own capitalisation.
- No provider logos unless you follow that provider's brand guidelines and have the current files.
- Say "payments in South Africa run on Paystack", not "Paystack partner" or "backed by Paystack". Describe pawaPay and Fincra only as "contracted, pending".
- Never list SnapScan, Stitch, Flutterwave, PayFast or M-Pesa direct.

Also "POPIA-aligned" is the approved phrasing, not "compliant" or "certified". No VAT is added or mentioned: Fluxmuse is not VAT-registered. Market-size figures are estimates: label them "est." with the source. Don't repeat the "40–60% reseller margins" line from the /for-agencies page; partner economics are always shown as a labelled illustrative example.
